

“Wine represents to me sharing, good times and a celebration of life. It is always around happy occasions with family and friends and centred around joy. What better item to be involved in then something that represents all these wonderful things.” - Ernest Hemingway

We believe in promoting great quality wines where vineyards are respected, rather than inundated with chemicals for the sake of effortless production. The producers we showcase at The Gidley live by this philosophy and produce the best wines possible using what the vineyards give them each vintage.

Most of the winemakers we admire use organic and biodynamic principles in the vineyard and in the winery. Most importantly, these winemakers uphold the principles of sustainable winemaking and the terroir of these wines.

The wines you will find on this list are exceptionally well-crafted, created with respect for nature and the bodies of those who consume it. The list also showcases outstanding Australian wines alongside classic grape varieties from distinct wine regions globally. Currently, we live in an exciting time where experimentation is at the centre of winemaking, with new styles of wine changing constantly. The Team is excited to support innovative winemaking while also paying tribute to the classic drops that have been satisfying wine lover’s palates for decades.

We at The Gidley acknowledge the Gadigal people, the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we have gathered. We pay respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Settle in. Enjoy the atmosphere. Savour the company. Crack open an outstanding bottle of wine. Because after all, you are what you drink!

ALIGOTÉ

Once the everyday wine of Burgundy's farmers, Aligoté was sipped in the fields and cellars for its lively acidity and thirst quenching freshness. Traditionally mixed with crème de cassis as a Kir, it's now being celebrated in its own right, especially from Bouzeron, its spiritual home.

Expect crisp notes of green apple, lemon peel, and white flowers, with a stony minerality and lean, zesty finish. Unpretentious and refreshing.

GAMAY

The Gamay grape, grown in the Beaujolais region of France, yields wines that are a true delight for wine lovers. With the elegance of Burgundy or the warmth of the Rhône, Beaujolais wines range from light and nuanced to rich, seductive, and spice driven.

Often overlooked, Beaujolais may still be one of the last undervalued gems of French wine, offering exceptional bottles at remarkable prices. It also happens to be one of the finest pairings for our Gidley Burger.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON & BLENDS

Cabernet Sauvignon, born from a natural crossing of Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Franc, is renowned for its bold structure and deep blackcurrant character.

Few pairings are as iconic as Cabernet and rib eye steak. The grape's firm tannins and vibrant acidity cut through the steak's richness, while its dark fruit and savory notes mirror the depth of the meat.

This classic match showcases the grape's ability to hold its merit with our Riverine marbled steaks showcasing Cabernet Sauvignon's power and elegance.
